State of Louisiana
City and Parish of New Orleans

Know all men by these presents, that I, James Wilson, formerly a Citizen of the Republic of Texas, but now a citizen of the City of New Orleans and State of Louisiana, have made and appointed, and by these presents do make, nominate, authorize, constitute and appoint, and in my place and stead depute and put William E. Florance, also of the said City of New Orleans, to be my true and lawful agent and attorney in fact; giving and by these presents granting unto my said attorney full power and authority for me and in my name and behalf, and to my use, to ask, demand, recover and receive of and from the Government of the State of Texas, all such sum and sums of money, debts, dues, demands, lands, or other property, as may be due owing, payable, or belonging to me in any manner whatsoever, either as pay, arrearages of pay, allowances, bounties, grants, or otherwise, from the late Republic of Texas or from the said State of Texas, under any law, resolution or rule of the government of either, now or heretofore in force, and by virtue of the military service by me rendered to the said Republic of Texas, and on the receipt thereof to grant sufficient receipts therefor. And for the purposes aforesaid, to appear before any Department, or any Court of law or equity, or any tribunal in the said
