There is no evidence on file that there were any troops in the field when these goods were furnished.

The officers or one of them must make affidavit as to what the goods were purchased for, & who consumed them.

The archer campaign was in June 1840

The Morehouse was in Jany 1841