Galveston 23rd February 1842

P. Edmunds
Consul to New Orleans

Sir

I have informed the Secretary of War & Navy, that you will cause the requisition as contemplated, in the foregoing to be executed forthwith,

~~The thousand dollars Exchequer bills~~ cannot now be placed in your hands, because no more will be issued, until I can proceed to New Orleans and have the notes engraved, So soon as this is done the amount will be placed to your credit and subject to your order.

Wm Henry Daingerfield
Secy of Treasury

Galveston 23 February 1842

I will pay the sum of Six hundred dollars, to the order of James. W. Moore, in current ~~funds~~ in New Orleans, at my compting room in that place at such time, as he may designate, in accordance, with the annexed requisition, and the seller of the goods is authorised to hold this instrument, as security for payment,

P. Edmunds.
Consul
