State of Texas
County of Bexar } Before me the undersigned authority this day came A. J. Leslie and John Young, who upon oath say that they were well acquainted with Thos. Hancock that they were made prisoners with him in San Antonio on the eleventh of Sept. 1842 and that they remained prisoners with him, until the general release of all the San Antonio prisoners 25th March 1844, and that they reached New Orleans on the 12th of April of the same year and that he lost his horse, arms and equipage —

A. J. Leslie
John Young
