Republic of Texas
County of Jefferson

Before me the undersigned Chief Justice of the County aforesaid, personally came and appeared John Carruthers who declared on oath, that the annexed discharge, are just, true and correct that he owes the government nothing on his own account, or on the account of any other person (with the exception of four bands of corn) and that he has not embezzled any arms, or munitions of war.

John Carruthers

Sworn to & subscribed before me this 19. Augt 1837.

Nicholas Chaffin Chief Justice
Jefferson County

TX

William C. Swearingen is hereby authorized to act as my agent, and have the annexed discharges audited and receive drafts for the amount — Galveston Augt 19. 1837.

John Carruthers

Witness present
Nicholas Chaffin

this day come Wm. C. Swearingen and says that the customary price of corn at the time claimant received, as set forth in his affidavit was two dollars per bushel

Sworn to before
[illegible] auditor

S69-1-1