P.S. On the repercusal of your letter I now recollect the disposition of the memorial, and the action proposed on it. I would copy this letter but for the press of business in getting ready to start for Washington.

Thine
Houston

Wisher