Personally appeared before me, J. L. Winters Justice of the Peace, Wm H Hull, who upon being sworn deposes and says: that the above Account is correct and is justly due to him as Surviving partner of the late firm of Latham Hull & Son of Mobile, in the state of Alabama, and that he is entitled to receive and collect all monies due to the late firm of Latham Hull & Son, he also states under oath that the above mentioned Account was for sundry articles of provisions & supplies furnished to the Texian Vessels of War belonging to the late Republic of Texas, the names of which Vessels are not now recollected, and that nearly all of the Account has been recognised as being due to the late firm of Hull & Son by Commodore Moore, then commanding the Squadron of the Texan Navy. he further states that the Commodore Moore stated to him
