Republic of Texas }
County of Harrisburg } Probate Court, March 8. 1838.

On the 27th day of Feby 1838, George Stovall this day appeared in open Court and applied for the administration of the estate of Francis M Hunt deceased, and the said George Stovall, having complied with all the requisitions of of the Law, and there being no legal objection filed to his appointment it is ordered by the Court, that the said George Stovall, be and he is hereby appointed, the administrator of said estate, with full and ample power to settle the same, according to Law, always subject to the decrees and orders of this Court

Test A Briscoe
Lew.s B Harris Judge of Probate
Clerk of Probate, protem.

State of Georgia }
County of Richmond }

Know all men by these presents that I George Stovall, of the County and State aforesaid, administrator in the State of Texas, on the estate of Francis M Hunt deceased, have appointed and by these presents do appoint, ordain, and constitute David Ayres of Galveston, in the State of Texas, aforesaid, my true and lawful Attorney, for me and in my name, as administrator aforesaid, to settle and pay all claims, due from said estate, and to receive, collect, sue for, compromise discharge and release all debts and claims due to said estate, and to sell and dispose of all property, belonging to the same, as I might do in person, and to prosecute all suits at Law or in Equity in behalf of said estate; and to apply for and obtain all necessary orders and decrees, for carrying out the purposes aforesaid; and to close up and settle all the unfinished business of my