City of Austin, Texas,
November 7th 1849.

The Auditor & Comptroller, of the State of Texas:
Gentlemen;

I have had the honor to receive your note of October 25th, admitting the reception of my communication of Novr. 30th 1848 in behalf of claims I had presented, and have since offered for adjustment, as Agent and Attorney for others: also, my letter of the 7th of September referring to three thousand seven hundred dollars of drafts on the Treasury issued to William Bryant; and, likewise, my note and individual account of the 18th ultimo.

The only adjustment I desire in reference to the drafts granted to Bryant is their reception by the Comptroller for all public dues conformably to the laws of January 16th 1843. of the late Republic of Texas, made binding by the constitution of the present State of Texas.

You will oblige me, Gentlemen, by embracing, in three separate notes, the substance of your communication of October 25, in reply to my three different communications.

I have the honor to be,
very respectfully your obt. svt.
Memucan Hunt.
