Third. The Goods were sold at specie prices without any Covin, device or private understanding, to defraud the Republic of Texas.

Fourth. The late Republic therefore received "a fair Equivalent" at the Market price at that time in Kentucky for such Goods, for her original Bond.

Fifth. This Bond never has been paid, but canceled; & cannot be paid except in Gold & Silver, or "Bankable Funds" as stipulated in the Bond.

Sixth: At the invitation of the late Republic the evidence of the Debt was novated in form, collateral security & time of repayment for which fair Equivalents were given in the surrender of the original Bond & the collateral Land Patents for 20150 Acres of Land; but there was novation of the amount Due nor of the Dollars & Cents in which it was originally stipulated to be paid with 10 per cent: Interest till redeemed by the Government of the Republic.

Seventh. Dollars, & not currency, nor discredited Bonds are therefore made the named the measure of value of the Debt, both in its inception & in its renewal - Figures & letters & words "as large as life", express it on the face of each Bond, without any reference whatever either to expatte, interested assumption of the current market Value of the evidence; nor to the higgling & bargaining of Brokers; nor to the shaving intrigues of gambling Stock-jobbers.

Eighth: It is d[redacted] that the Republic ever established or indicated in act or deed or Bond, or in any way countenanced such rule of Equivocation to elude her plain & honest stipulations for the fulfilment of which she pledged her "good Faith" in just so many words. This new scheme of "Re
