In accordance with a Decree of the Honorable Probate Court of Galveston County bearing date 1st day of June A.D. 1850, I have this day sold the within certificate to J. W. Jockusch, who became the purchaser thereof as the highest bidder at a public sale, and for good and valuable consideration, do hereby assign the same to the said Jockusch or his order, in conformity therewith.

Galveston June 4th 1850.

Witnesses —
Jno. H. Burnett

A. J. Yates
Administrator of Estate
of J. P. Lansing dec'd.

Samuel Harris

Before the undersigned Chief Justice of the County of Galveston & Judge of the County Court, this day appeared Andrew J. Yates to me known as the administrator of the Estate of J. P. Lansing deceased, who acknowleged that he as administrator aforesaid had signed and executed the above assignment and transfer of the within certificate for the consideration & purposes therein expressed — In testimony whereof I hereto set my name and impress of the seal of my Court, this 5th day of June 1850. W. F. Hall C.S. Chief Justice & Judge County Court

I assign my right and interest in the within certificate to Ch. Coney for benefit of M. Zacharie for value received

Galveston October 11th 1850

Witnesses
Samuel Harris
Jno. H. Burnett

J. W. Jockusch

State of Texas
County of Galveston

W. F. Hall C.S.
Chief Justice of Galveston County
& Ex off: Notary Public

Received payment in full for the within certificate
Mch 29th 1852.

Be it Known that on this Eleventh day of October A.D. One thousand eight hundred & fifty before me E. P. Hunt a Notary Public for Galveston County personally came J. W. Jockusch to me personally known and acknowledged that he had executed the above transfer for the consideration and purposes therein stated

In testimony whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed my Seal of Office at the City of Galveston this day & year above written

E. P. Hunt
Notary Public