before me, Notary Public of said Coun-and deposes and says upon oath that John H. Livergood served as a private in Capt. Hays Company of Volunteers in the Expedition under General Burleson in the Spring of the year 1842 —

Given under our hands this the 26 day of July AD 1859

H. S. Foley
Wm Smothers

Sworn to and subscribed before me on the day and year above listed, as evidence of the fact I hereto sign my name and affix my seal notarial — appearing —

A. Dalton

This is to certify that M. B. Foley. J. B. F.
Woodward. B. C. Greenwood. J. R. Tumall.
Amos Moore, D. H. Lyons. J. H. Livergood Henry Bridges, have faithfully discharged their duties as soldiers while under my command — and that they are now furloughed until they receive certain intelligence that the enemy has invaded the country.

Given AD 2D 1842
