Louisville Ky October 27th 1836

Sir

I this day shipped three companies of Volunteers for Texas via New Orleans, of my Battalion to be attached to the Army of Reserve under your command, and shall follow, and join them tomorrow.

The 1st Company commanded by Capt Chas C. Colerick, is well clothed but not entirely armed — its strength is 50 men — they are all provided with Tents, Knapsacks, Canteens, Haversacks, Shirts, blankets, & proper camp Equipage as shown by the accompanying report of Capt Colerick —

The 2nd Company commanded by Capt Morgan, is well provided with clothing, but without arms, they have 35 blankets and the necessary cooking utensils: its strength is 29 men —

The 3rd Company. Capt Geo. H. Burroughs is well provided with uniforms, arms tents blankets, Knapsacks, and Camp Equipage. —

Sir H. Mansfield
Adjutant
$21.84.55

TX

T31-30-1