veston if it be possible. The Atty Gen. has promised to render his opinion upon it as soon as presented to him. There will be no delay in that quarter.

All I have spoken to here in regard to your Office are in favor of you for it. They not only say they approve of you as a business man, but that they will give you their active support. When I get to Galveston I will get my Bro: to unite with me in securing Mr. Potter's support who has great influence, which, if exerted in your behalf, would undoubtedly secure you the place.

Write me at Galveston

Your Friend

P. Rose.