Department of State
February 16. 1846

The undersigned, Secretary of State of the Republic of Texas hereby certifies that from the records of the Department of State it appears that George S. McIntosh was appointed Secretary of Legation on the 20th day of June 1837 and served in that capacity until the 1st day of November 1839, when he assumed by instruction the duties of Chargé d'Affaires and continued in that capacity until the 1st day of November 1842, and is entitled to the salary, outfit &c., attached to those offices for the time specified with the exception of such amounts received by him on sundry occasions, of which this Dept. has no record, save the appropriation of Five thousand dollars for his relief in 1843.
