agree in the premises by arbitration or otherwise as the said Attorney in his discretion may deem proper, and best for our Several interests;

To give good and sufficient discharges for all claims paid, and monies received, and in all respects by his legal acts, under this procura=tion bind us, and each one of us as firmly as if the same had been our own acts and deeds.

And generally to do all matters needful in these special premises, as fully and validly as we, or either of us could do them if personally present: In Testimony whereof, we hereunto set our Hands and seals at New Orleans, the day and the year aforewritten. (To be "interlined, and also the words added of," Hereby revoking all other Powers.")
