State of Texas }
County of Fayette }

Before me the undersigned authority personally came Isaac Mullins, who being duly sworn states that he entered in the company of J. H. Moore and actually served in the army of Texas, under the command of General Edward Burleson in the Spring of 1842 in repelling the invasion of Texas by the Mexicans under General Vasquez and that he served during said campaign. Affiant further states that he makes this application for pay, and that he has never before received pay for said service —

Isaac Mullins

The State of Texas }
Fayette County }

Before the undersigned authority personally came John R Baylor and John. H. Moore, who being duly sworn state that they were acquainted with Isaac Mullins in the Spring of 1842 that he is the identical Isaac Mullins who served ~~in the campaign of J. H. Moore~~ under the command of Gen Edward Burleson during the campaign of 1842 in repelling the invasion of Texas by Gen Vasquez. they further state that they belonged to the command of said Burleson during the expedition and are acquainted with the fact that said Mullins did serve during that campaign —

J. R. Baylor
J. H. Moore