State of Texas, }
County of Bexar. }

Before me the undersigned, one of the Justices of the Peace in and for said county came James Dunn a citizen of said county, to me well known, and being by me duly sworn, deposed: that he served as the Volunteer company, under the command of Capt. Blendeman of the 1st Regt. of Infantry of Texas Army on his campaign against the Comanche Indians during the summer of 1840: that Thos. W. Addicks a citizen of said county acted and served on said campaign in the capacity of guide & spy under the command of said Capt. Blendeman & rendered valuable services as such, and even directed the action with the Indians that were routed on that occasion; that this deponent believes they were out on service, on this said expedition about twenty three or twenty four days; and this deponent further saith not.

Sworn & subscribed to before me at San Antonio this 20th December 1850. — James Dunn

J. Menolan J.P.B.Co