Before me the undersigned, one of the Justices of the Peace in and for said county personally came James Dunn a citizen of said county, to me well known, & being by me duly sworn, deposed: that in & during the year 1843, some ill-disposed persons inhabitants of the River Guadalupe, by theft drove from the farm & cattle range of Ygnacio Chavers a citizen of said county & situate on the River San Antonio in this county, a large amount of cattle belonging to said Chavers (now deceased), that also about the same time were stolen cattle belonging to other persons citizens of said county, situate on said River San Antonio; that Thomas N. O'L. Adacks acting under the authority & orders of Government, with two men Wallace and Jack Johnson, went in pursuit of said cattle & the party who had so taken them, & on the Guadalupe river recovered them, running some danger of his life & those who accompanied him, and drove said cattle back to this place where they were delivered to their owners; and this deponent further sayeth not.

Sworn & subscribed to before me at San Antonio this 23d day of December, A.D. 1850.

James Dunn
