Know all men by these Presents, that I, Wm. C. Clark, of Lake Creek, Municipality of Washington, and Republic of Texas do hereby nominate, Constitute; and appoint Young Carrethers of the precinct, municipality, and Republic above mentioned, my true and lawful Attorney to transact all business with the proper authority of this Republic, relative to a discharge from the Army of Texas, belonging to Hiram Brunet; transferred by said Brunet to me. And I Wm. C. Clark do by these presents agree to let the said Carrethers receipt for any papers which may come from the Government aforesaid, or its legal officer — and bind myself to abide by his transactions for me in this matter in all respects. And I hereby empower him (if he sees proper) to sell, convey, or otherwise dispose of said discharge, and the accompanying papers.

Given at Lake Creek, this Sixth Day of November, 1836, in presence of the following Witnesses }
