I certify that Joseph D. Clements at [illegible] at the Town of Gonzales, was appointed the President of a Committee to procure Corn and meal, to supply the Volunteer army of Texas that was rendezvous in at that place, about the first of March 1836.

Nov. 22 1837 —

Andrew Ponton
Member of Congress