Solicitors, May 20th 1844

Sir

You will kindly oblige me by attending to the following subject. The power of Attorney regarding and if you should succeed in getting any of the pay due from the Government you will please forward the same after deducting all expenses to the Bankers Banks or Solicitors and you will much oblige

Your Most Obedient
Robert H. Clements

F15-20-2