1st Lieut. N.M.G.

James Patterson

The above named appraisers are men of veracity, and in good standing from the knowledge of the subscriber, and are competent judges of the value.

A. Robb
Capt. Comdg. Company

The Horse reported as lost upon the return of Capt. Ross was when lost under the Charge of Henry A. Robb, he will not however be charged with his loss, as he has in lieu of horse of his own from much greater value, which was also lost & for which the government would be responsible
