The State of Texas }
County of Travis } Know all men by these presents
That I James C. Wilson of the County and State aforesaid, ~~Attorney in fact for Charles H. Mills, heir at law~~ of Thomas P. Mills, under power of attorney, of date the 4th day of January A.D. 1855, which is hereunto attached, do hereby authorize empower and appoint my friend Hugh H. Haynie of the City of Austin and County of Travis in said State, to demand and receive all monies due Thos P. Mills for his services as Second Lieutenant in the Company [illegible] Everett in the year 1842, And I hereby authorize the said Haynie to all the powers in me by the said Power of Attorney vested, And I ratify approve and confirm unto the said Haynie to be my agent and attorney for that purpose, and for the purpose of signing all receipts, vouchers or acquittances, which I or the said Charles H Mills, if personally present would be authorized to sign, and all other matters and lawful acts to do in the premises, which I or the said Charles H Mills might do, hereby ratifying approving ratifying and confirming all the acts and doings of said Haynie in the premises as my own acts and deeds.

Given under my hand and seal this 11th day of [illegible] 1858.

James C Wilson Everett