Instant (1834) also came and appeared before me the undersigned notary in my notarial office, William Baughen, of this city, to whom I read the foregoing affidavit of Mr George Phillips taken before me; and the said William Baughen first having been duly sworn by me notary to declare the truth, the whole truth & nothing but the truth upon the Holy Evangelists, did depose & say that he was Sergeant of the company organized by the said John Rose and that he confirms and ratifies in every respect the testimony of the said George Phillips, as to the organization and equipment of said company in conformity with the proclamation of General Houston: that the declarations made by said Phillips in his affidavit are true and correct in every point to his (affiants) own personal knowledge, and that said company served for the full period for which they had enlisted, and when disbanded their arms were left in the Republic of Texas.

Wm Baughen

Sworn to and subscribed before me on the day herein above first set

Y10-20-2