State of Louisiana
Parish of Jefferson
Third Judicial District Court

Wednesday 30th day of June 1852
Present Hon. L. C. Clarke Judge

Succession of Carter Seargent } On Motion of T. L. Lemly Counsey for John G. Harris Curator of the Succession of Carter Seargent

deceased the Court is given to understand that among the debts due said Succession there is a claim against the public debt of the late republic of Texas amounting to Six hundred and five dollars for services rendered and losses sustained by the late Carter Sergeant whilst engaged in the Mexican expedition which claim having been sufficiently authenticated to authorize the auditing of the same under the laws of the late Republic of Texas was and is recognized by the present State of Texas as part of her present liability but which debt can not be collected and reduced to possession unless the said John G. Harris Curator of said Succession is expressly authorized by the Hon Court to transfer the same to some one to collect and reduce it to possession: Wherefore It is ordered by the Court that V. F. Cotton do show cause on friday the second of July next why the said John G. Harris Curator of the said Succession should not transfer the said claim against the public debt of Texas as above mentioned to T. J. Carlisle to collect and reduce to possession.

Wed 7 2d July 1852 This suit came up for