He has frequent business relations with him up to the date of his death & always charged him upon his books as of a trader.

~~And the said R. Barth further says that he always & habitually~~ the name of the said Bergera Stranger was spelled with an G & always so spelled it & they the affiants are certain & confident & do state that the said Jean Baptiste Stranger deceased was ~~the~~ a member of said Company - that they knew him well & intimately while a member thereof & continued to know him up to the date of his death & have since frequently conversed with him about the incidents of said Campaign & that they know of no other Stranger in said Campaign

And this by the best of their knowledge & belief -
