State of Tennessee }
Monroe County } On this 23rd day of August One thousand Eight hundred and fifty One before me, the undersigned a Justice of the Peace, in and for the County and State aforesaid, legally authorized to administer oaths, in such cases, personally appeared Hardy Jones, a resident of Roane County in the State of Tennessee aforesaid aged about sixty two years, who being duly sworn according to law, declares on his oath aforesaid, that he is the father and true and only legal heir of the identical Calvin Jones, who, as he is informed and believes, was a Private in Captain Lewis' Company in the Santa Fe Expedition in the War between Texas and Mexico.

Jones Calvin

that he entered said service at about the day of that he was taken as a prisoner about the day of AD at and was taken to the City of Mexico, when he continued in captivity until about the day of AD when and where he died of Small Pox, as declarant is informed and believes, he, the said Calvin Jones, having been in the said military service of Texas, about the Term of all of which will appear by