The State of Texas }
County of Fannin } This is to certify that I saw several waggons at least six or seven hauling corn from two different places of corn that had been furnished by Daniel Slack late of Fannin County, to fill a contract made with Captain Reid, to supply the troops stationed at Reid, fort in the year 1841 or 1842 – the waggons were of good size, capable of hauling forty to sixty bushels each the whole contract was for four hundred bushels – I cannot state from personal knowledge how much corn was delivered, but have good reason to believe and it is my opinion that the contract was filled by Daniel Slack
