Know all men by these presents that I, D. C. Freeman Jr. of Frankfort Kentucky, have this day nominated, constituted and appointed, and do by these presents nominate, constitute and appoint G. R. Freeman of Austin City Texas, my true and lawful attorney in fact to take possession of, and controll all property, of every description, of which I am wholly or in part owner, to transact any and all business pertaining in any manner to my interests in said State of Texas, acting to protect, preserve, and benefit me in my said interests, and to sell, transfer, exchange, or convey any and all ~~my lands or other~~ property belonging to me solely or in part, in said State, and to make and execute deeds, bonds, or other instruments of writing to convey my title to said property or any part thereof, as he may choose. And I hereby ratify, and confirm all his bonafide acts, thus performed, as fully as if I should do them in person. This power to continue for the term of twelve months, and no longer; and at the expiration of that time it shall cease, except so far as may be necessary to complete any engagement that he may make within said twelve months from the date hereof. Witness my hand and (seal for) seal, this the fourth day of April eighteen hundred and fifty five

(Seal) D. C. Freeman Jr.

I, John C. Herndon Presiding Judge of the Franklin County Court in the State of Kentucky, do certify that the foregoing power of Attorney from Dandridge C. Freeman Jr. to G. R. Freeman, was this day produced to me and acknowledged by the said Dandridge C. Freeman Jr. to be his act and deed for the purposes therein mentioned - which is here
