I, Jeremiah Sullivan, do solemnly swear that I am the identical Jeremiah Sullivan and identical man who served as Corporal in the Company Commanded by Captain Ross in 1842 in Texas, that I served in said Company for the term of four months. That I have never recieved any pay for my services and I now make this oath of Services rendered for the purpose of recieving the same. I further swear that I recieved an honorable discharge but that I have mislaid or lost said discharge and cannot now produce it.
