County of Galveston }

I, James P. Nash of the City of Galveston do solemnly declare upon oath, that I have faithfully served as a private Soldier in the Fusilier Company stationed at Galveston where A Swingle was Captain and I. P. Cole first Lieutenant from the first day of the organization of said Company, until the day of its disbandonment — and that I have on all occasions faithfully discharged all the duties of a Citizen and Soldier without having yet received any Compensation for such services

Outfit for expedition on board the steamer Lafitte. $60.0
Compensation for services (left blank) ——

James P. Nash,

Before me Henry Austin personally appeared James P. Nash known to me who being duly sworn declared that the above affidavit contains a correct statement of the services rendered by him to the late Republic of Texas for which he now requires compensation as one of the Creditors of said Republic

In witness whereof I have hereto set my hand with the impress of my seal of office this 29th day of August A.D. 1857,

Twenty ninth day of August 1857

Henry Austin
