2

Red back notes as has for both amounts.

Your petitioner also refers to the accompanying account Current and Vouchers for Purchases made in Dec 1849 & Jany 1850 of Mr to dispatch under a flag of truce to Vera Cruz by Order of the Navy Dep.

That your petitioner found the Republic without Credit, and paid the sums to the disbursing agent, from the salary he had received from the Government —

That they were returned to the Auditor's Office, but a change in the financial policy of the Republic at that period suspended payments under the Exchequer law —

The Congress that met in the Town of Washington in 1844 passed a Bill allowing your petitioner $1000 in Exchequer Bills on account of his claim for services

It was vetoed by the President of the Republic because your petitioner did not ~~[illegible]~~ cite to receive Tax Scrip —

The Auditorial Court acknowledged the difficulty of doing what was just in relation to the account Current & Vouchers of your petitioner under this rule, and advised him to look to your honorable body for relief —