a party to this bill, enjoining and restraining him from paying the amount of said certificate to the said Mc Mullen, the said Moore, or to any other person presenting the same to said Treasurer for payment, until the rights of your petitioner in the premisses, can be adjudged and determined upon a final hearing of the matters and things herein charged and set forth. At which final hearing your petitioner prays, that by the Judgment, order and decree of your Hon'l court, the said certificate may be ordered, adjudged and decreed, to be property belonging to the succession of Fleming T. Wells, deceased, and the right to hold, possess and collect the same, may be ordered, adjudged and decreed, to be in your petitioner as administrator de bonis non, upon said succession, to be by him as administrator as afor-said, collected and disbursed in due course of administration of said succession, for the use and benefit of all persons legally, or equitably entitled to the proceeds thereof. And that the said E.W. Moore, and the said S.T. Mc Mullen, may be cited to appear at the September Term 1852, of the District court for the county of Travis, then and there upon their corporate oath, full and true answers make to the matters and charges herein contained and
