Republic of Texas
Executive Department
Austin, June 5th 1841.

Messrs.
James Hamilton
& A. S. Burnley
Commissioners to negotiate a
Loan of five Millions of Dollars.

Gentlemen,

At Sight of this my first bill (my second of this tenor and date unpaid) please pay out of any moneys which may be obtained by a negotiation of the bonds of this Republic now in your hands the sum of Five hundred Dollars ($500.00) to the order of Nathaniel Amory Esqr. and charge the same to the Treasury Department it being for the Contingent Expenses of the Texan Legation near the Government of the United States.

Mirabeau B. Lamar.

(TX)

By the President.
John E. Chalmers
Sec'y Treasury

B5-13