Department of Brazos
Jurisdiction of Matagorda } ss.

Personally came and appeared before me, Thomas Anderson who being duly sworn states, that, he served as a private under Captain P. Demite Comandante at Fort Goliad and was honorably discharged as appears by the Certificate of Capt. Demitte and that he lost two Nags in the service, one of which was a Bay mule pressed into the service to Pack flour to General Austin at Bexar; the other a gray horse which was pressed by order of Captain Demite to [illegible] the volunteers the Greys in a forced march to Bexar: declarant further swears that he has received no public stores nor is he indebted in any manner whatever to the Government.
