To the honorable Congress.

The petition of James R Cook, would represent that, for his personal services in the army of Texas, he received a draft on the treasury of the republick, for five hundred and fourteen ~~46/100~~ dollars; which draft your petitioner lost; the number of which was 1025. And your petitioner showeth that he hath taken the proper precautionary measures, at the proper office to prevent the payment of said lost draft.

The premises being considered, your petitioner prays that your ~~honor~~ will grant unto him such relief as your honorable body may think fit & proper. And your petitioner will ever pray &c.
