San Francisco Nov. 26' 1870

James P. Newcomb

Secretary of State

Sir - I wrote you a few weeks since regarding the Act passed by the Legislature of the State of Texas to provide a pension for those who fought in the war between Texas and Mexico - The Act itself has been published in the papers in San Francisco and as there are a number of persons in this city entitled to pension, and as they are desirous that I should make out their claims, Will you
