Mr. Austin Bryan, of Washington C.H. was a fellow soldier.

Gail Borden, Thomas, and John P. know me well.

I saw in your city last spring, F. W. Chandler, Esq., Judge Price, and Judge B. McFarland, all of whom have known me many years.

When I signed the Oath of Identity, my hands were very cold.

Hoping, Sir, that I have adduced sufficient evidence to prove my identity and just claim to the Pension,

I am, very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
Lancelot Abbott.
