The State of Texas }
County of Hill }

Whereas, Nathaniel Addison of the County of Hill, State of Texas, did, on the 10th day of Sept AD 1874, name, constitute, and appoint Jo Abbott of the same County and State his true and lawful atty in fact for him and in his name and stead, to demand and receive for him and in his name, all money or bonds due him from the State of Texas as a Pensioner under the acts of 13th day of August 1870, and 21st day of April 1874, with power of substitution —

Now therefore know all men that I, the said Jo Abbott do hereby name, constitute and appoint C. R. Johns of the City of Austin State of Texas, my true and lawful substitute for me and in my name and stead to do and perform any and all acts that I could do by virtue of the premises; and I hereby further bind the said Nathaniel Addison and myself to confirm and ratify any and all acts that my said substitute may do by virtue of this Power of Atty.

In testimony whereof, I hereunto set my hand and seroll for seal this 28th day of November AD 1874
