The State of Texas } 30 November Term a D. 1876.
County of Bexar. } In County Court.

To the Honorable Thomas A. Dwyer, Judge

The applicant Rita Alemada y Gonzales aged 60 years, a resident of said County with respect represents that she believes herself entitled to the benifits of "an act to provide Annual Pensions for the Surviving Soldiers of the Texan Revolution, and the Surviving Signers of the Declaration of Texan Independence, and the Surviving Widows of such Soldiers and Signers" — Approved 28th of July 1876.

That her husband Antonio Gonzales, was a Volunteer who served in the war between Texas and Mexico in the Army of the Republic of Texas, between the Commencement of the Revolution at Gonzales in 1835, and the first day of January 1837.

That he is the identical Antonio Gonzales who was in the Company of Captain Salvador Flores in the Siege of Bexar in December 1835, and other Public Service of Texas his Native State, and that he never took up arms against this State, and also that he was in the Army of Texas in the year 1836, and served as a Messenger or Bearer of Despatches under Col. Thomas McKinney (does not claim to have been in the Battle of San Jacinto.)

See Transcript No. 8. on this Sheet

A She further declares that her maiden name before her said marriage was Rita Alemada, and that she was married to the said Antonio Gonzales, on the 20th day of September a. D. 1837, by the Rev. R. Garza in the City of San Antonio and that her said husband died on the Medina River