J. B. Lippincott & Co.,
Booksellers and Stationers,
Philadelphia, Pa.

The State of Texas.}
County of Bexar.} Be it remembered that on this 21st day of September A.D. 1874. Before me Sam. S. Smith, Clerk of the District Court of Bexar County, personally appeared M. B. Anderson and Henry L. Badaz and Lorenzo Castro, Citizens of Bexar County, and credible witnesses, who each being duly sworn upon their oaths do say that they are well and intimately acquainted with the following persons, who are all bona fide residents and citizens of Bexar County, and who have made their applications for pension under the laws of the State of Texas, as members of Capt. Juan N. Seguin's Company in the taking of Bexar in December 1835. To wit: Juan Jose Palacios, on the Medina River, Bexar Co.
Clemente Bustillo, now residing in the City of San Antonio,
Juan Gimenes " " " " " " " "
Pablo Salinas " " " " " " " "
Ygnacio Espinosa " " " " " " " "
Justo Traviesa " " " " " " " "
Jesus Gomes, now residing on the Calaveras Creek Bexar Co.
Francisco Miranda " " " " " " " "
Pablo Cassillas " " at the Mission of Espada " "
Julian Contes " " " " " " " " "
Mateo Cassillas " " " " " " " " " Graviel Gonzales " " " " " " " " "
Francisco Dias " " On the Medina River " "
Jose Alemeda " " " " " " " "
Francisco Valdez " " " " " " " "
Antonio Hernandez " " On the Leon Creek " "
Carlos Chacon " " " " San Antonio River " "
Fernando Curbier " " Atascosa County near the line of " "
And they know them and each of them to be the