When I submitted the list referred to above, to Generals Houston, Rusk and Austin they certified that while they could not identify the names of the persons contained on the list, they were satisfied that it did not contain the names of all those that made up the company because when it was being formed at Gonzales it was the largest one in the entire army. An escort was also detailed from my company and left this city in charge of the mexican families that went to Nacogdoches, fleeing before Santa Ana.

I make this statement to Comptroller in behalf of my comrades, believing their claims in this case to be just. You can however attach to it such weight as you may see proper. I am

Very Respectfully
Your Obedient Servant
