I expect crops will be rather light have had but little rain until right recently. the health of the country is tolerably good we have no School here at present. I want you to tell me in this letter what has become of Dave, have not heard from her since Billie was here last winter when you write tell us all the news of the country. I can think of nothing to write this morning. times are very dull as usual. we have plenty of mud about now, the boys are setting out potatoe slips. I had just as well to close give our love to all the family and a portion for yourself write soon and your letters will be answered. have never heard a word of my horse Written by Sally for her Father
