And De Camp by Gen'l Sam Houston Comm'r in Chief of the Volunteer Army of Texas — That he continued service in that Capacity until after the Battle of Sanjacinto on the 21st of April 1836 and until the 26th day of May. (Gen'l Austin having been wounded in the Battle of Sanjacinto was taken to New Orleans for medical treatment) Consequently on the 26th day of May 1836 his Resignation was accepted by the Sec'y of War Mr. B. Lamar; he fully believing he again went to the field and was appointed Aid De Camp by Gen'l M. B. Lamar in which Capacity I continued in service until Gen'l Lamar retired from service —

That in the Battle of San Antonio in the month of December 1835, he was wounded in the left hand during the engagement! Wm. S. Austin

Sworn and subscribed at Galveston the 2nd day of October A.D. 1879 before me

Sergot Brosig.
Notary Public. G. C.