at the town of Gonzales. Affiant further states that during said period he was in the same Company engaged in the battle of "the Grass Fight" near San Antonio - Captain Fannin being in the interval called from the army to raise troops, Captain York was elected Captain of said Company, and affiant served under him in said last named battle - Genl Austin also being sent abroad on other service Genl Burleson in his stead commanded the forces in said last named battle - affiant was also engaged as a soldier in the same Company at the taking of San Antonio which took place about the 10th day of December A.D. 1835.

Affiant further states that about the first of March A.D. 1836 he joined the army of Texas as a private in the Company of Capt Dimmit at Victoria Texas - and said Company made an ineffectual attempt to join the army, but the forces of the enemy cut off said Company from joining the army immediately - and resulted in said Company being scattered and disbanded
