OFFICE OF A. B. PETICOLAS,

Lawyer and Notary Public.

Victoria, Texas, May 9th 1873

Messrs C. R. Johns & Co

Austin } Gents: I understand that the law granting pensions to the surviving veterans of Texas has passed. And that it provides that proof under the law of 1870 was sufficient. On October 12th 1870 I sent you the application of A Bass for the pension together with the necessary affidavits proving the [illegible] of the veterans, and also my authority to collect same. which papers you now have in your hands, I know not whether the bill makes an appropriation for the payment or not but my recollection is that it does [illegible] at the [illegible]
