The State of Texas }
County of Victoria }

I Archibald Bass of said County and State do solemnly swear that I am the same person who served as a soldier during the Texas Revolution in Captain Pattons Company that my parents gave me the name of Archibald W— and that I not being able to read and write myself and depending upon others to attend to my business and not thinking of any importance of stating the name in full—the "W" was left out seemingly by common consent and I reduced my name down to "A Bass" and had the attorney who got up my papers for pension suggested to me that I should give my full name or name in full—I Conahan told him of the above facts— I therefore do solemnly swear that I am the same person who served in Capt Pattons Co. in 1836 in the Texas Revolution as Archibald W Bass.— and that in my application for Pension my name was written as I verify below A. Bass. and that I
