The State of Mississippi
Hinds County } This day personally appeared before the undersigned

Joseph Bennett, of Rankin County, Mississippi, who after being Sworn deposed and Said that he was a volunteer in the Texian Army in 1836; that he Volunteered in Brandon, Mississippi, his home, and left for the Seat of War in Texas, on the 2nd day of April, 1836; that he joined Capt William Van Norman's Company of Cavalery as a three months Volunteer, which Company belonged to the Cavalery Regiment Commanded by Genl Felix Huston. That the battle of San Jacinto was fought before his Regiment reached the battle ground. That he Served his full term of three months and was honorably discharged from the Service. David H. Dickson, and A. Mizell, whose names are signed to the accompanying affidavit, were also members of the Same Company and Regiment and know that the Service name was performed by the Said Joseph Bennett as named above, and that he was honorably discharged as they have testified in Said affidavit.

He hereby makes application for a pension under the provisions of the Act of the Legislature of Texas entitled "An Act granting pensions to the Surviving veterans of the revolution which Seperated Texas from Mexico," approved August 13th 1870.

Jo. Y. Bennett

Sworn to and Subscribed by the Affiant before me at Jackson Mississippi this 6th day of February A.D. 1871. Geo. A. Smythe, Commissioner of Deeds for the State of Texas