The State of Texas
County of Hays

Before me, Ed. J. L. Green, District Court Clerk of Hays County State of Texas. This day came and personally appeared W. H. Bishop and S. W. Yost, both of whom being by me duly sworn, state upon oath, that affiant, the said W. H. Bishop, did, in the year A. D. 1870. make application to the Comptroller of Public Accounts in the State of Texas, for a certificate entitling the said W. H. Bishop to a pension under the Provisions of an Act of the Legislature of the State of Texas, entitled "An "Act granting Pensions to the Surviving Veterans of the Revolution which "Separated Texas from Mexico" approved August 13th 1870. as one of said veterans, in the said Act mentioned:— which said application was accompanied by and supported by the affidavits of Maverick of Bexar County in said State and Thomas McGehee of Hays County in said State; That at the date of making said application affiant W. H. Bishop, the applicant aforesaid, resided in the County of Kendal in said State, and that